

Health Care in Orange County: Industry and Worker Trends

Health care is one of the largest industries in Orange County.

70%

of the 20 fastest-growing health professions in the region may be accessed with less than a Bachelor's degree. Further education supports career advancement in many fields.

Health care is the fastest-growing sector of the local economy.

+104% growth in number of employees from 1997-2017

+20% growth projected from 2014-2024

33,600 new jobs

Employers are facing a shortage of workers with cultural competence and linguistic skills.

Hispanic residents make up one-third of the Orange County population

...but hold only 8% of health care jobs.

To find out more, follow us or check out the full report at <http://www.ocstem.org/>